Ian Johnson was born and raised in Washington State. He is a graduate of the University of Washington and Willamette Law School. Upon completing law school he clerked for the Honorable Judge Gerald Knight at the Snohomish County Superior Court. He has been practicing law for 7 years, joining Anderson Hunter as an Associate in 2016.

Ian is experienced in many litigation areas including all areas of family and domestic law, business and commercial litigation, estate and will contests, guardianships and employment matters. His range of experience includes trials, hearings, arbitrations and mediations throughout Western Washington, including the Court of Appeals.

He is currently a member of the Washington State Bar Association and the Snohomish County Bar Association. He volunteers at the Snohomish County Legal Clinic.

Ian and his wife and daughter live in Everett and are avid Mariners and Seahawks fans.
